

DO or MAKE?

1. Fill in the gaps with 'do' or 'make':

_____ an effort

_____ the dishes

_____ a good job

_____ friends

_____ a change

_____ a suggestion

_____ your nails

_____ an appointment

_____ your homework

_____ a complaint

2. Circle the correct verb for each phrase:

do / make a good job

make / do a change

make / do a complaint

do / make the dishes

make / do a suggestion

do / make an effort

make / do your nails

do / make your homework

do / make friends

make / do an appointment

3. Fill in the blanks with words from the box:

a suggestion, my nails,
friends, a good job, a complaint, the dishes, an appointment,
homework, an effort, a change

He made _____ to control himself.

He downloaded an app that can do his _____ for him.

It's time to make _____. This cannot continue!

He made _____ to improve the company's productivity.

My sister did _____ today. I'm not sure I like the color.

I made a lot of _____ in college and I still keep in touch with some of them.

She did _____ organizing the conference. It was a lot of hard work.

"Did you make _____ with the dentist?" "No, I forgot."

We were treated badly by the staff at the hotel so we made _____ to the management.

I'll vacuum the carpet if you do _____.

4. a. Write four sentences that are true about yourself using the phrases in exercise 1.

e.g. I made a lot of friends during my stay in Barcelona.

b. Compare your sentences with your partner's and ask follow-up questions to find out more:

e.g. "I made a lot of friends during my stay in Barcelona."
"Nice! Do you still keep in touch with them?"

FIND SOMEONE WHO:

Go around the room and find people who fit the description below.
Write only one name for each row.

1. Find someone who made a complaint last month: _____

2. Find someone who did their nails last week: _____

3. Find someone who did the dishes recently: _____

4. Find someone who made a change in their lives: _____

5. Find someone who made a suggestion in class recently: _____

6. Find someone who did their homework recently: _____

7. Find someone who made new friends last month: _____

8. Find someone who made an appointment last week: _____

9. Find someone who made an effort to exercise more recently: _____

10. Find someone who did a good job preparing for a test: _____

Total: _____ out of 10.